LIFE AFTER FFA

FFA ALUMNI

This month's article features those who are involved with the New Jersey FFA Alumni Association.

HANNAH MANN

"I joined the alumni board to give back to members and to stay connected and involved with FFA even after I aged out of the blue jacket."

Hannah joined the Salem Tech FFA Chapter in 2010. Hannah served as a State FFA officer in 2015-2016.

Hannah received the American FFA Degree in 2017.

Hannah currently is a 212/360 National FFA Leadership Facilitator.

"I've had the opportunity to attend the National Alumni Convention in Indianapolis twice by serving on the alumni board. It has been a great opportunity to network!"

Hannah serves as the President of the New Jersey FFA Alumni Association.

"You should join the alumni because it's a whole new FFA experience. You still get to be involved in the organization, but in role that allows you to create opportunities to help members succeed."

DELANEY GRAY

"I joined the Alumni because I want to make sure that our members and teachers have every opportunity to succeed."

Delaney joined the Freehold FFA Chapter in 2008. Delaney served as a State FFA officer in 2012-2014.

Delaney received the American FFA Degree in 2014.

Delaney has interned for the Office of Public Information at the New Jersey Department of Agriculture.

"Being in the alumni let's me stay in touch with the people I care about the most! I've also been able to serve as an Alumni Delegate at National Convention."

Delaney serves as the President-Elect of the New Jersey FFA Alumni Association.

"You should join the alumni to give back to the New Jersey FFA Association so that other members have every opportunity you had and more!"

SUPPORT THE BLUE JACKET

The New Jersey FFA Alumni Association, Inc. is an organization of alumni and friends of the New Jersey FFA Association. FFA relies on alumni members for help with recruiting students and fundraising for activities. You don't have to be a former member to be a part of the alumni.... Membership is open to anyone!

DAVID WATTS

"I joined the alumni so that I could help support the state officers, state staff and New Jersey members at large."

Dave joined the Penns Grove FFA Chapter in 2011. Dave served as a State FFA officer in 2013-2014.

Dave received the American FFA Degree in 2014.

Dave currently works at A.T. Buzby Farms in Mannington, New Jersey as an Agriculture Farm Hand.

"Being involved with the alumni has allowed me to travel with the state FFA alumni board and to spend time with good friends who I now call family."

Dave serves as the Foundation Representative for the New Jersey FFA Alumni Association.

"You should join the alumni to support your local chapter and FFA members to make a difference in the lives of students and advisors!"

HOPE CAHILL

"I joined the alumni because I wanted to help other members and officers the same way I was supported and helped."

Hope joined the Monmouth County FFA Chapter in 2010. Hope served as a State FFA officer in 2014-2016.

Hope received the American FFA Degree in 2015.

Hope currently works at L.B. Forceletti and Son's Garden Center.

"The NJ FFA Alumni has done so much for me! I have received scholarships, funds for ILSSO to South Africa, and was able to attend the NJ Agricultural Convention as a delegate."

Hope serves as the Fundraising Director of the New Jersey FFA Alumni Association.

"You should join the alumni because of the family that shares the same passion for agriculture and giving back to an organization we all love!"

New Jersey FFA Alumni Association is a vital part of the New Jersey State FFA Association. The Alumni raises funds to support special projects such as State Officer Leadership Training, Banquet and Retiring Address Workshops, Scholarships, and so much more!
