Valued Client,

This letter is provided to meet your inspection, accreditation, or regulatory requirements related to the laboratory services.

The Animal Health Diagnostic Laboratory (AHDL) has a Quality Management System (QMS) implemented to specify the policies and procedures for the AHDL to operate in compliance with the World Organization for Animal health (OIE) and ISO 17025 quality assurance requirements for the competence of testing laboratories.

The QMS ensures consistent, dependable, and traceable test results to our clients assuring highest quality.

The AHDL's QMS is approved by the National Animal Health Laboratory Network of the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA).

We appreciate you for choosing the NJDA AHDL for your testing needs. Please let us know if you have any comments or suggestions to help us meet your needs by contacting the AHDL at (609) 406-6999 or jerseyvetlab@ag.state.nj.us

Sincerely,

Amar A. Patil DVM, MS, PhD, DACVM
