

help service dogs focus

When you meet a service dog:

- Keep yourself and children 10 feet away from service dogs
- Avoid eye contact with the dog
- Speak to the handler, not the dog
- If a service dog is barking, it may mean their human needs medical assistance

For more information:

Thank you for helping make a safe environment for everyone