	On February 11th, Food Service Director spoke with Karsons, the school's food vendor. She informed Karsons of the discrepancies with portions sizes appropriate for K-8 meals. Karsons recognizes that its current packages do not allow them to fit the required portions of vegetable. Starting on February 25th Karson's will move to double packages: one for the meat and one for the vegetables. This will ensure proper portions. Food Service Director will continue to weigh portions using a food scale to ensure that portion sizes consistently meet the requirements.
