ALL ABOUT NEW JERSEY!

New Jersey is famous for its tomatoes because of their flavor, tenderness, and juiciness. Tomatoes are in season in New Jersey during the summer months, from June through September. The New Jersey Pine Barrens has ideal growing conditions for growing tomatoes with its sandy and acidic soil. Tomatoes are delicate plants that do not like the cold. Be sure to plant yours after any danger of frost which in NJ or Zone 7 is using around Mother's Day or May 15.
