PUBLIC COMMENT

Ashley Kerr asked whether the Committee had seen the letter New Jersey Farm Bureau sent on September 16 regarding Stony Brook Meadows. In the letter Farm Bureau stated that it didn't believe it was within the authority of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) to determine the SADC's jurisdiction. The only questions properly before the OAL at this point are those identified in the SADC's remand. Peter Furey just wanted her to note that the letter had been submitted. She also asked if there is a timeline for an appeal – can you appeal a decision years later? Ms. Payne stated that the Committee was not provided with the letter. She stated that she didn't recall seeing it and apologized for what might have been an oversight on her part. Ms. Kerr stated that she would re-send the letter and Ms. Payne stated that she would immediately provide it to the Committee. Regarding appeals, Mr. Stypinski said appeals of final decisions must be filed within 45 days. However, because this decision remanded the case to the OAL for fact-finding on certain issues, the decision is not completely final and the process starts over again with whatever issues were remanded to the ALJ. Mr. Smith offered to discuss this further with Ms. Kerr if she would like to call him.

ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business, it was moved by Mr. Waltman and seconded by Ms. Brodhecker and unanimously approved to adjourn the meeting at 4:28 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,

Susan E. Payne, Executive Director
State Agriculture Development Committee
