

Landowner Workshop on June 1, 2013:

Making Your Land Available for Farming: Leasing 101

Join other landowners on June 1, 2013 for an educational workshop on leasing.

Saturday, June 1, 2013
10:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Rutgers EcoComplex
1200 Florence-Columbus Rd.
Bordentown, NJ 08505

If you own a farm and are interested in leasing – whether you are already making your land available for farming, or are interested in doing so in the future – this workshop is for you.

The purpose of the workshop is to help landowners learn more about some of the important things to do when thinking about leasing. Topics will include:

- Identifying and clarifying your goals for the land
- Assessing what your property (the land and infrastructure) has to offer
- Understanding the farmer's point of view – what are farmers looking for in a property, and what do farmers want or need in a leasing situation to have a successful business?
- Short-term versus long-term leases
- The elements found in a typical lease
- Additional resources – organizations, leasing guides, and strategies for finding farmers

To sign up for this free workshop:

Please contact the SADC at 609-984-2504 or hillary.barile@ag.state.nj.us.

Registration and more information is also available online:

- SADC website – www.nj.gov/agriculture/sadc
- NOFA-NJ website – www.nofanj.org

