Re: NOTICE OF ENFORCEMENT ACTION - INITIAL AGENCY
DECISION REGARDING IMPOSITION OF SANCTIONS AGAINST DANK POET DISPENSARY LLC

Dear [REDACTED]:

The New Jersey Cannabis Regulatory Commission ("NJ-CRC" or "Commission") has imposed a civil monetary penalty of $7,500.00 for the reasons articulated below.

NJ-CRC's Issuance of Notice of Violation

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 17:30-20.4(a), during an onsite assessment, a review of financial records, or other Commission review of the license holder and its operations, if the Commission identifies a violation of the Cannabis Regulatory, Enforcement Assistance, and Marketplace Modernization Act, P.L.2021, c.16, N.J.S.A. 24:6I-31 et seq., (the "Act") or the implementing Personal-Use Cannabis Rules (the "Personal-Use Regulations"), the Commission shall provide notice of the violation, including an official written report of the findings and the nature of the violation, to the cannabis business or testing laboratory within seven business days following the onsite assessment or other identification of the violation.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 17:30-9.5(a), a license holder shall not allow any cannabis item or alcohol to be consumed on the premises or administrative offices of the cannabis business, or in public areas in the vicinity of such premises or administrative offices, except cannabis items may be consumed in a cannabis consumption area.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 17:30-14.3(d), a cannabis retailer shall not sell to a consumer in a single sales transaction: (1) more than 28.35 grams (one ounce) of usable cannabis; (2) more than four grams of solid cannabis concentrate or four mL of liquid cannabis concentrate (oil); (3) vaporized formulation containing more than four milliliters of liquid cannabis concentrate (oil); (4) multiple ingestible cannabis-infused products containing an aggregate total of more than 1,000 mg of THC; or (5) more than 28.35 grams (one ounce), or the equivalent, of some combination of usable cannabis and cannabis products.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 17:30-14.3(e), a cannabis retailer shall make a good faith effort to prevent a consumer from exceeding one ounce of usable cannabis or the equivalent weight in cannabis products, in multiple sales transactions.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 17:30-14.3(k), a cannabis retailer shall collect any tax from a consumer required by the Act and the Personal-Use Regulations.

On April 11, 2025, a Notice of Violation was issued to Dank Poet Dispensary LLC (“Dank Poet”) for violations related to the failure to prevent on-site consumption, failure to comply with product sales limits, and failure to collect required New Jersey sales tax on purchased products (INV-59-25).

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 17:30-20.4(b), unless otherwise specified by the Commission, within 20 business days of receipt of the notice of violation, the cannabis business or testing laboratory shall correct the violation(s) and notify the Commission, in writing, of any corrective actions taken to correct the violations, and the date of implementation of such corrective actions. Dank Poet responded to the Notice of Violation and provided a corrective action plan within 20 days of receipt of the Notice of Violation.

NJ-CRC’s Review of Imposition of Sanctions

Regardless of whether a license holder provides a corrective action plan, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 17:30-20.5(a), in response to a violation of any provision of the Act or the Personal-Use Regulations, the Commission is authorized to take enforcement action or impose sanctions upon a license holder. Sanctions may include, but are not limited to, civil monetary penalties; suspension, revocation, non-renewal, or denial of a license; referral to State or local law enforcement, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 17:30-20.6, -20.7, and -20.8; or any combination thereof.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 17:30-20.6(b), a monetary penalty imposed by the Commission on a license holder pursuant to this subchapter may not exceed $500,000 per major violation or $50,000 per any other license violation. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 17:30-20.6(c), a violation by each entity or person per day shall constitute a separate incident for the purposes of calculating the number of violations.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 17:30-20.6(d), the Commission may impose greater penalties for successive violations up to the maximum amounts.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 17:30-20.6(f), the Commission may, in the Commission's sole discretion, consider additional factors in determining the penalty for each violation. Such factors may include, but are not limited to:

1. Any prior violations that the license holder has admitted to or was found to have engaged in;
2. Good faith measures by the license holder to self-report or prevent the violation;
3. The license holder's record of compliance with the laws and rules pertaining to personal use cannabis;
4. Corrective action(s) taken by the license holder related to the current violation or prior

- violations;
5. Willfulness and deliberateness of the violation;
  6. Likelihood of reoccurrence of the violation; and
  7. Violations involving damage or danger to the life, health, welfare, safety, or property of any person.

After completing a thorough review of Dank Poet's violations related to the failure to prevent on-site consumption, failure to comply with product sales limits, and failure to collect required New Jersey sales tax on purchased products, the Commission has determined to impose a civil monetary penalty of $7,500.00 as follows:

VIOLATION	FINE
Violation 1 (failure to prevent on-site consumption)	$5,000.00
Violation 2-3 (failure to comply with product sales limits)	$2,000.00
Violations 3 (failure to collect required New Jersey sales tax on purchased products)	$500.00
TOTAL	$7,500.00

In determining the penalty, the Commission considered penalties previously imposed on businesses for similar violations and the particular facts and circumstances of the violation, including the fact that Dank Poet allowed on-site consumption of cannabis despite being advised by the NJ-CRC staff prior to the event that such consumption would not be permissible.

The Commission finds the imposed penalty to be fair, reasonable, and consistent with the regulations at N.J.A.C. 17:30.
