

Joyce Mollineaux

A longtime Atlantic City resident was appointed to the New Jersey Casino Control Commission in 2021.

Before joining the Commission, she worked for the City of Atlantic City. She serves as president of the Atlantic City Citizen Advisory Board, was vice chairperson of the Atlantic County Human Service Advisory Council, a member of the Atlantic City Zoning Board, and a former City Councilwoman. Mollineaux was the State Secretary of the NAACP, and President of the Atlantic City branch. Earlier in her career, she was employed with the Sands Hotel and Casino for five years.

"WE ALL HAVE TO LIVE IN THIS CITY TOGETHER. I'VE SEEN HOW [THE CASINOS] HAVE TAKEN INITIATIVE TO LET CITIZENS OF THE CITY KNOW WHAT THEY ARE ABOUT AND WHAT THEY ARE DOING, AND THE CITIZENS ARE VERY HAPPY WITH THAT. I'VE SEEN BUSINESS PEOPLE, COMMUNITY PEOPLE, AND RESIDENTS WORKING TOGETHER AND I'M GRATEFUL WITH WHERE WE ARE AND THAT WE ARE MOVING FORWARD TOGETHER."

The Casino Control Commission spotlights Black History in Atlantic City and its casino industry. This is the start of that series.
