On 8/18/25 and 8/19/25, Garden State Youth Correctional Facility's Senior Correctional Police Officer (SCPO) Pamela Smith called out sick and did not have sufficient leave time balance to support her absence. This is deemed chronic or excessive absenteeism. SCPO Smith was issued a Final Notice of Disciplinary Action for a 15-day suspension.
Senior Correctional Police Officer	Jose	Sosa	No	No	Yes	15	NA	No	N.J.A.C.4A:2-2.3(a) General Causes (6) Conduct unbecoming a public employee (12) Other Sufficient Cause HRB 84-17, as amended B2 - Neglect of duty, loafing, idleness or willful failure to devote attention to tasks which could result in danger to persons or property D7 - Violation of administrative procedures and/or regulations involving safety and security E1 - Violation of a rule, regulation, policy, procedure, order or administrative decision.	A review of the Garden State Youth Correction Facility Daily Activity Report (DAR) from 12/14/24, revealed a Medical Alarm was sounded when an incarcerated person was found lying on his cell floor complaining of pain in his hand. A review of related Body Worn Camera (BWC) video surveillance footage revealed that the incarcerated person's hands were injured when improperly closed inside his cell food port by Senior Correctional Police Office (SCPO) Jose Sosa. SCPO Sosa exited the tier and never returned to the incarcerated person's cell. SCPO Sosa logged his BWC as "Medical/ Mental health treatment area". SCPO Sosa was heard on BWC, admitting he closed incarcerated person's food port by mistake. Later the Medical Alarm was called and the incarcerated person was brought to the infirmary for medical treatment. A review of departmental records indicated that SCPO Sosa never wrote special custody reports about the incident or had the incarcerated person medically evaluated for potential injuries from the incident. SCPO Sosa signed a settlement agreement on 4/7/25 for a 15-day suspension.

On 11/20/24, a Correctional Police Sergeant (CPS) at Garden State Youth Correctional Facility was conducting a tour of Senior Correctional Police Officer (SCPO) Kirk Wilkerson's post. An incarcerated person was observed engaging in passive recreation when the incarcerated person was under a loss-of-recreational-privileges sanction. During the second tour of the post by the CPS, the same incarcerated person was observed out of their cell. It was discovered that an incarcerated person was improperly out of his cell and inside the SCPO's side office in a closet with the lights off wearing unauthorized clothing (sweatshirt hoodie). SCPO Wilkerson stated that he was unaware the incarcerated person was in that closet in the dark in unauthorized clothing and that the incarcerated person was out of his cell in order to do his daily job of cleaning. SCPO Wilkerson admitted that he usually allows incarcerated persons on cleaning detail to be unsecured in the office which is a violation of policy. SCPO. Wilkerson signed a settlement agreement on 4/9/25 for a 15-day suspension.
