

DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS APPLICANT QUESTIONNAIRE AND HIRING
INFORMATION FOR THOSE INTERESTED IN BECOMING A CORRECTIONAL POLICE OFFICER

(Please print a copy of this document for your records)

Dear Candidate:

Although a career in correctional services may be both personally fulfilling and financially rewarding, many persons are not suited for this type of work. The position of Correctional Police Officer often requires that the employee engage in activities and be placed in situations which many individuals find both physically undesirable and emotionally objectionable. In the past, many people interested in a career in corrections have refused employment when they learned all of the requirements of the position of Correctional Police Officer have resigned during the first few months on the job. In order to spare the discomfort of preparing yourself for employment, only to find that there are aspects of the job which make it unacceptable to you, the Department of Corrections has prepared an Applicant Questionnaire of job elements for your consideration. Each element in the questionnaire represents a job requirement. An employee who refuses to perform any one of the responsibilities on this questionnaire is subject to dismissal.

THEREFORE, anyone unwilling to perform any of the activities outlined in this questionnaire should not submit an application to become a Correctional Police Officer. It is important that you read each statement carefully and thoughtfully consider your response. While some of these statements may appear to be offensive to some, the sole intent of this questionnaire is to give you a realistic view of the duties, work environment and responsibilities of a Correctional Police Officer.

1. Are you willing to work in a job where you are not free to discuss many of your daily activities with family and friends?
2. Are you willing to wear a uniform to work everyday?
3. Are you willing to be trained in the use of firearms?
4. Are you willing to attend a physically intensive 14-week, in-residence training program in Sea Girt, NJ and two weeks of training in your assigned facility?
5. Are you willing to undergo a comprehensive psychological evaluation if this position is offered to you?
6. Are you willing to undergo an intensive physical examination if this position is offered to you?
7. Are you willing to work in a locked area of a building, supervising the activities of inmates who have been convicted of murder, rape, child molesting, armed robbery, etc?
8. Are you willing to work eight hours a day, with dangerous inmates in an area which can be unlocked only from the outside?
9. Are you willing to work a shift, which may be one of the following: 6 AM to 2 PM, 2 PM to 10 PM, 10 PM to 6 AM?
10. Are you willing to commute up to one hour and half from your residence to your assigned work location under normal travel conditions?
11. Are you willing to work weekends with your regular days off during the week?
12. Are you willing to work ALL Holidays?
13. Are you willing to work double shifts (16 consecutive hours) and scheduled days off with little or no advance warning?
14. Are you willing to be confined to the institution for your entire tour of duty, including the meal break, and eat only the meal provided by the institution?
15. Are you willing to work alone for an entire eight-hour shift?
16. Are you willing to supervise the activities of inmates who might call you offensive names and/or threaten you and your family?
17. Are you willing to supervise the activities of inmates while they are in the bathroom or shower?

18. Are you willing to pat frisk inmates, visitors, and other staff members and to conduct visual searches of inmates' body cavities?
19. Are you willing to testify in court concerning events that have occurred in the institution?
20. Are you willing to work in an infirmary with sick inmates who could have serious diseases such as AIDS or Tuberculosis?
21. Are you willing to work in building areas that smell of unpleasant odors such as body odor, body wastes, etc?
22. Are you willing to respond to life threatening incidents such as inmates and/or staff who have been stabbed, had heart attacks, attempted to hang themselves, etc.?
23. Are you willing to shoot an escaping inmate (possibly to death) should the need arise?
24. Are you willing to report a fellow officer who might be breaking prison rules or regulations?
25. Are you willing to risk your personal safety to rescue a fellow officer or an inmate from attack?

While this list is not exhaustive, you can see that the Correctional Police Officer) has a challenging, difficult and stressful job that can sometimes be dangerous. If you are unwilling to perform any of the above activities, and cannot answer "yes" to all of the above, you should not file an application at this time.

If you decide that a career as a Correctional Police Officer is something you are truly interested in pursuing and you meet all of the requirements for this position, you must complete and submit an online job application along with the required application fee to the New Jersey Civil Service Commission. You will then be scheduled to take an examination which is tentatively scheduled to be given in October/November 2019. Those who pass this examination will be placed on an eligible list. At that time, you will be sent a Department of Corrections (DOC) Application for Employment which you must complete and submit to the DOC at your initial processing appointment. Those who fail to submit a completed, notarized employment application may be removed from the eligible list.

When the DOC is ready to make appointments from the eligible list, those at the top of the eligible list will be "certified." Those certified must follow instructions on contacting the DOC to indicate their continued interest in employment as a Correctional Police Officer. Failure to contact the DOC within the timeframes indicated on the certification notice and respond to DOC communications via email may be cause for removal from the eligible list.

In addition to the failure to respond to the Notice of Certification, there are a number of additional reasons one may be removed from an eligible list. Some of these include:
