

Ombudsperson community meetings

Please attend and share this widely.

The Corrections Ombudsperson Office is traveling the state to meet with community members about our prison oversight work and priorities for the coming year. Please share the information with your networks. Each meeting will include an update on our work in 2023, a listening session on three priority topics (medical care, property, and visits), and an open forum for people to share other information, concerns, and ideas. We look forward to meeting and learning from the community.
