

THE NEW JERSEY OFFICE OF THE CORRECTIONS OMBUDSPERSON INVITES YOU TO JOIN THE FIRST QUARTERLY PUBLIC MEETING.

The Office of the Corrections Ombudsperson is an independent, neutral party that investigates complaints regarding persons incarcerated in a NJDOC facility and provides information to the incarcerated and their families.

Pursuant to mandates established in P.L.2019, c.288, the Office of the Corrections Ombudsperson is required to hold quarterly public meetings. The purpose of the meeting is to gather stakeholder input in the Ombudsperson's activities and prioritize concerns related to incarcerated individuals.

As this is a new process for all, the first meeting will be a meet and greet to discuss the responsibilities and vision of the office and to gather information on systemic concerns identified by the stakeholders.

Please join us on Tuesday, December 7, 2021, from 4:00 to 5:00 pm. Due to continuing health concerns, the meeting will be held virtually via Zoom. You can attend and participate via Zoom by using the following link: <https://tinyurl.com/5kfd4u6c>.

You can also participate by calling into the meeting. Please use the following information: 1-646-558-8656 Meeting ID: 948 6506 1088 Passcode: 588683
