DIVISION OF BANKING

Notice of Readoption

Bank Service Corporations

Readoption: N.J.A.C. 3:14

Authorized By: Richard J. Badolato, Commissioner, Department of Banking and Insurance.

Effective Date: November 22, 2016.

New Expiration Date: November 22, 2023.

Take notice that pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-5.1, the rules at N.J.A.C. 3:14 were scheduled to expire on January 8, 2017. The rules implement N.J.S.A. 17:9A-24.1 et seq., and provide the banking industry with standards for the formation of and services provided by bank service corporations. Bank service corporations perform bank services, other than the taking of deposits, for their stockholders or other institutions.

The rules provide definitions of key terms, such as "affiliate," "appropriate Federal banking agency," "bank," "bank services," "bank service corporation," "banking institution," "invest," and "limited liability company."

The rules identify services that bank service corporations are permitted to perform without application to the Commissioner of Banking and Insurance (Commissioner). The rules also identify services that may be performed only upon application to the Commissioner, the procedure for filing such applications, and the standards for the Commissioner's approval or disapproval of such applications.

The chapter also prohibits a bank service corporation from discriminating in providing bank services to banking institutions that do not own stock in the bank service corporation, except that a bank service corporation may charge nonstockholding banking institutions a price reflecting the full cost of providing such services, including the cost of capital and a reasonable return thereon, and except that a bank service corporation may refuse to provide bank services if the services are available elsewhere at a comparable cost or are beyond the reasonable capacity of the bank service corporation.

The Department of Banking and Insurance has reviewed these rules and has determined that the rules should be readopted without change. The rules are necessary, reasonable, and proper for the purpose for which they were originally promulgated. Therefore, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-5.1.c, these rules are hereby readopted and shall continue in effect for a seven-year period.

Filed: November 15, 2016, as R.2016 d.171, without change.

Effective Dates:

December 19, 2016, Amendments and Repeals.

Expiration Date:

Take notice that, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-5.1.d(1), Governor Christie extended the expiration date from May 31, 2016 to May 31, 2017. See 48 N.J.R. 1365(a).

Summary of Hearing Officer Recommendations and Agency Responses:

A public hearing on this readoption with amendments and repeals was held on February 3, 2016, in Trenton, New Jersey. Walker Ristau served as hearing officer. One comment was received on the readoption with amendments and repeals at that time, and no recommendations were made by the hearing officer. One written comment was received. The record of the public hearing may be reviewed by contacting Christopher Myers, Assistant Director, Division of Appeals and Regulatory Affairs, Civil Service Commission, PO Box 312, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0312.

COMMENT:

Debra Williams, a Judiciary employee, requested that employees approved for donated leave be permitted to use that leave intermittently. Ms. Williams also stated that appointing authorities should be given more flexibility to administer the donated leave rules so that they, who are best able to monitor what is going on with the employee, would be able to respond as circumstances with the employee change.

RESPONSE: The Commission understands Ms. Williams’s concerns. However, the intent of the donated leave program is to provide employees the opportunity to donate sick or vacation leave to other employees who are suffering from a catastrophic health condition or injury, which is expected to require a prolonged absence from work and who have exhausted all of their accrued leave time. Thus, the use of intermittent donated leave clearly conflicts with the intent of this rule. Nevertheless, the Commission notes that the use of additional, short-term donated leave upon return to work may be appropriate in limited situations. See In the Matter of T.C. (CSC, decided June 3, 2015). Accordingly, the donated leave rules currently provide flexibility to appointing authorities to administer its donated leave program.

COMMENT: Jean Publee opposed leave for emergency civilian duty. She also opposed school volunteer leave, as “taxpayers already pay huge sums of money” to school employees.” She further stated that public employees should be prevented from taking paid leave to run for elected office and that benefits should not be paid to employees on voluntary furlough. Ms. Publee suggested that no state employee should be allowed leave for more than one year. In this regard, she stated that unused vacation and sick leave should expire at the end of the year. Furthermore, Ms. Publee presented that all State employees should work 40 hours a week and that the State should not make rules for local appointing authorities, as they should be able to make their own rules regarding holiday leave. Ms. Publee inquired into how sick days are compensated under the donated leave program.

RESPONSE: The basis for the rules concerning emergency civilian duty leave and leave to run for elected office, accumulation of vacation and sick leave, benefits received while on voluntary furlough, and observed holidays is statutory. Therefore, the amendments suggested by Ms. Publee cannot be implemented via the rulemaking process.

The rules concerning school volunteer leave were implemented pursuant to Governor Whitman’s initiative to encourage State employees to volunteer their services to New Jersey schools and in consultation with standards for the formation of and services provided by bank service corporations. Bank service corporations perform bank services, other than the taking of deposits, for their stockholders or other institutions.
COMMENT: Jean Publee also commented that wages, pensions, and other benefits for public employees should be reduced or cut entirely. Although there are some costs to State agencies and participating local governments in providing additional paid leave, these costs are minimal compared to the benefits. With respect to N.J.A.C. 4A:6-1.11, a Federal standards analysis is not necessary, as the rule section meets, but does not exceed Federal requirements or standards. Although N.J.A.C. 4A:6-1.4 is subject to Federal confidentiality requirements of the Americans With Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 12101 et seq., this section does not exceed Federal requirements or standards. Therefore, a Federal standards analysis is not necessary.

RESPONSE: The comments and proposals redrafted in Chapter 6, however, a Commentary comments are outside the review of the proposed redrafted of Chapter 6. However, a commentator comments are available when published in the New Jersey Administrative Code at N.J.A.C. 4A:4.

With the exception of N.J.A.C. 4A:6-1.4, Sick leave procedures: State service, 11.1. Military leave, and 11.2. Federal family and medical leave, the Commission observes that not all positions require employees to work 40 hours a week. Moreover, the rule section meets, but does not exceed Federal requirements or standards. Although N.J.A.C. 4A:6-1.4 is subject to Federal confidentiality requirements of the Americans With Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 12101 et seq., this section does not exceed Federal requirements or standards. Therefore, a Federal standards analysis is not necessary.

Readoption with Amendments: N.J.A.C. 4A:8

Adopted: November 15, 2016, by the Civil Service Commission, Robert M. Czech, Chairperson.
Filed: November 15, 2016, as R.2016 d.174, without change.
Effective Dates: November 15, 2016, Readoption;
December 19, 2016, Amendments.
Expiration Date: November 15, 2023.

Take notice that, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-5.1.d(1), Governor Christie extended the expiration date from June 20, 2016, to June 20, 2017. See 48 N.J.R. 1445(a).

Summary of Hearing Officer Recommendations and Agency Responses:

A public hearing on this readoption with amendments was held on February 3, 2016, in Trenton, New Jersey. Walker Ristau served as hearing officer. Seven comments were received on the readoption with amendments at that time, and no recommendations were made by the hearing officer. No written comments were received. The record of the public hearing may be reviewed by contacting Christopher Myers, Assistant Director, Division of Appeals and Regulatory Affairs, Civil Service Commission, PO Box 312, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0312.

1. COMMENT: Marcus King, President, Teamsters Local 331, Atlantic County, expressed concern regarding possible temporary layoffs in Atlantic County. He asserted that in the past, furlough days were not evenly applied among employees. He requested that alternatives to temporary layoffs be explored.

RESPONSE: The readoption of Chapter 8 does not alter the provisions concerning alternatives to layoffs. Moreover, specific layoff plans are outside the purview of the readoption with amendments of Chapter 8.

2. COMMENT: Lisa Willett, Sophia Kent-Howerton, Margaret Bennett, Barbara Tardibyyono and Tom Willett, Teamsters Local 331, Atlantic County, stated that a temporary layoff plan would not solve the current fiscal problem in Atlantic County. They asserted that the economic situation in Atlantic County requires a broader solution, which could include casinos paying more in taxes. They argued that their suggestions have not been heard. They requested that the Civil Service Commission consider the impact of the plan and the financial costs to Atlantic County employees. In this regard, they contended that temporary layoffs will make it harder for employees to make ends meet, as many are living from paycheck to paycheck.

RESPONSE: The Commission understands these concerns. However, as indicated in the Response to Comment 1, specific layoff plans are outside the purview of the readoption with amendments of Chapter 8.

3. COMMENT: Jeanine Williams, Teamsters Local 331, Atlantic County, inquired into the difference between mandatory and voluntary furlough.

RESPONSE: Voluntary furloughs are listed as an alternative to layoff per N.J.A.C. 4A:8-1.2(c). The purpose of a voluntary furlough is to lessen the need for a reduction in force by allowing employees to voluntarily take up to 30 days leave from work without pay in a calendar year with accrual of leave time, anniversary dates, and seniority treated as if the employee is in a pay status. See N.J.A.C. 4A:6-1.23(a). A mandatory furlough is a term that is sometimes used instead of temporary layoff where employees in a specific department are required to be off work for specific day(s).

Federal Standards Statement

A Federal standards analysis is not necessary, as there are no Federal standards or requirements applicable to the subject matter of the rules readopted with amendments. The rules readopted with amendments concern layoffs of New Jersey civil service employees and are authorized by State law, as indicated in the notice of proposal Summary and notice heading.

Full text of the readopted rules can be found in the New Jersey Administrative Code at N.J.A.C. 4A:8.

Full text of the adopted amendments follows:
