PUBLIC PORTION

Regarding Item B-35, the CWA submitted comments that were read into the record. Those comments requested that in conjunction with the Model Telework Pilot Program, that the Alternate Workweek Program (AWP) and Flex-Time Programs already utilized by certain appointing authorities remain in place. Additionally, Kevin Moxley, a member of the public provided a comment that was read into the record. He stated that the program needed to be implemented equitably and should allow alternatives such as AWP and Flex-Time. In response, Chairperson Webster Cobb indicated that the Pilot Program is akin to a “dry run” and adjustments and fine tuning can occur upon the evaluation of the program at the end of the one-year period. She also indicated that the above concerns would be addressed during the Pilot Program period.

There being no further business before the Civil Service Commission, the meeting was adjourned to convene on Wednesday, April 27, 2022, at 10:00 a.m., at 3 Station Plaza, Trenton, New Jersey.
