

The Training Post-Spring 2019

Question Corner: How will you navigate challenges in your professional development journey?

You ask, “How will you navigate challenges in your professional development journey?”

“I will continue to pursue our mission of restoring a clean environment, water, soil and air, for all of the people that inhabit and visit New Jersey, to the very best of my abilities.”

Bridget M. Sweeney
Research Scientist, Chemistry
NJDEP

“I will continue to practice writing more fluid and encompassing memos for the work that I do.”

Shannon Lain
Office of Adolescent Services
Department of Children and Families

“Hi, I would navigate challenges, by research, trainings, conferences, as well as, interview others who had the same challenges and how they handled them. Thanks”

Joannie McRae, BSM, MBA
