

Workforce Diversity and Inclusion Summit

December 9, 2021

“Developing Programs for Employee Engagement and Wellness”

Welcoming Remarks

Deirdré L. Webster Cobb, Esq., Chair/Chief Executive Officer, New Jersey Civil Service Commission (CSC)

Opening Presentation:

Jayné Johnson, Esq., Director of the Office of Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging (Equity Office) in the New Jersey Governor’s Office

Panel Facilitator - Kia A. King, Director of Policy and External Affairs, NJ Department of Community Affairs

Moderator: Kaitlyn J. Woolford, J.D., Chief of Staff, NJ Office of the State Comptroller

The Equity Office is charged with ensuring that state policies and programs advance diversity, equity, and inclusion. The office seeks to foster greater inclusion and belonging within state government to create a more equitable and fairer New Jersey for generations to come.

Workforce Diversity and Inclusion Summit

December 9, 2021

Panel Presentation: Employee Engagement and Wellness

I. Assessing Workplace Climate

- Braheim Knight, Diversity and Inclusion Officer, NJ Department of Labor and Workforce Development
- Alyson Bergin, Diversity and Inclusion Program Specialist, NJ Economic Development Authority

II. Establishing an Employee Resource Group (ERG)

- Marvin Ross, Chief Diversity Officer, NJ Department of Environmental Protection

III. Best Practices for Employee Engagement and Wellness

- Nancy Carre-Lee, Executive Director, Office of Staff Health and Wellness, NJ Department of Children and Families
- Shelby Pettis, Manager, Employee Advisory Service, NJ Civil Service Commission
- Jocelynne Timmons, Executive Assistant, Office of the Chair and CEO, Civil Service Commission