Acting Executive Director’s Report
Acting Executive Director (ED) Simmons wanted to take this opportunity to thank the board as he will be serving in this current capacity as Acting Executive director. He will be providing information and updates during this time of transition. Also, a special thank you to the DAG’s Tamara and Gabriel as well as the governor’s authority unit Jamera Sirmans.

Acting ED Simmons mentioned that in the UEZ division is looking to continue to expand operations and funding will be going out to the zones shortly. State Fiscal Manager, Joe Fusco has already sent out letters to the Mayors receiving funding and notifications were given to the Coordinators of their respective zones. The ED stated that we are moving forward and monies will be in the hands of those zones very soon. This concludes the acting Executive Director’s report for today.
