Re: Missing page in January 19, 2021 UCC update packet

This is to inform you that there was a publishing error in the January 19, 2021 UCC update. You will note that the Instructions refer to adding a new page, 23-180.1, which was not included. In short, Page 23-180 of within your update ends with the text of NJAC 5:23-12.1(c), new Page 23-180.1 should contain the text below, and existing Page 23-181 picks up with NJAC 5:23-12.1(f)1:

(d) It is the purpose of this subchapter to enhance the public safety, health, and welfare by ensuring that elevator devices as defined in this subchapter are inspected, tested, and maintained in accordance with nationally recognized, referenced standards and in accordance with the established inspection cycle for the building.

(e) For purposes of this subchapter, "elevator" or "elevator device" means a hoisting and lowering device equipped with a car or platform which moves in guides for the transportation of individuals or freight in a substantially vertical direction through successive floors or levels of a building or structure; or, a power driven, inclined, continuous stairway used for raising or lowering passengers; or, a type of passenger carrying device on which passengers stand or walk, and in which the passenger carrying surface remains parallel to its direction of motion and is uninterrupted. This includes, without limitation, elevators, escalators, moving walks, dumbwaiters, wheelchair lifts, manlifts, stairway chairlifts, and any device within the scope of ASME A17.1 (Safety Code for Elevators and Escalators), ASME A18.1 (Safety Standard for Platform Lifts and Stairway Chairlifts), or ASME A90.1 (Safety Standard for Belt Manlifts).

1. This definition shall not apply to any conveying devices and process equipment. Conveying devices include special purpose personnel elevators, mine elevators, marine elevators, wind turbine tower elevators, outside emergency elevators, material hoists, conveyors, and any other device outside of the scope of ASME A17.1, A18.1, or A90.1.

(f) The following terms, when used in this subchapter, shall have the following meanings:
