AUGUST 2014 HIGHLIGHTS

- For the sixth month in a row, more than one billion dollars of construction was authorized by building permits. The estimated dollar amount for August was $1.427 billion.
- New houses and home repair accounted for $733.8 million. This was 51.4 percent of all authorized work.
- Office, retail, and other nonresidential work totaled $693.6 million (48.6 percent).
- August activity is based on data from 532 of New Jersey's 565 municipalities.
- Jersey City had the most work ($196.3 million) and the most new houses (700 units). The biggest development was a 447-unit condominiums building at Exchange Place. The City building department also issued alteration permits to convert two buildings once used as hospitals to new housing.
- Paramus Borough had $54.1 million of work. Two Bergen County projects account for much of this, a new building for the Bergen County Special Services School District ($30.9 million) and a new community health center ($12.9 million).
- Gloucester Township in Camden County had $33.6 million of construction in August. Over $25 million was for new outlet stores that will result in more than 588,000 square feet of retail space. This development accounted for more than 78 percent of all the retail space authorized in August.
- Harrison Township had $33 million of work. Much of this was for a 329-unit apartment building.
- Princeton had $31.2 million of activity. The biggest project was a mixed-use development for a new train station and cultural arts center. It also will have restaurant and retail space.
- Oldmans Township, Salem County had $30.4 million of construction in August, nearly all of which was for a new warehouse for retailer Five Below. When complete, it will be just over one million square feet.

Year-to-Date

- 2014 is on pace to be a good year for New Jersey construction.
- The dollar amount of work authorized by building permits between January and August 2014 is $9.835 billion. This is $1.048 billion more than last year at this time, an increase of 11.9 percent.

- A total of 16,195 new dwellings were authorized by building permits. This is 3,222 more than last year at this time, for an increase of 24.8 percent.
- 54 percent of all authorized dwellings were attached to other houses or buildings with other uses.
- Office space is up by 5.8 percent. New retail space more than doubled, mainly from the Gloucester Township outlets that broke ground in August.
- The five municipalities with the most work in 2014 thus far have one thing in common: a lot of new dwellings.
- Jersey City is on pace to exceed one billion dollars of construction in 2014. The dollar amount through August is $868.2 million. New houses accounted for nearly 70 percent of this. Housing rehab adds another 17.7 percent. Jersey City has 2,178 authorized dwellings through August, top among all municipalities. For more than a decade, no other municipality has built more new houses.

- Newark has $317.5 million of construction through August. Authorized dwellings totaled 547, which ranks fourth among municipalities. Work continues on the new Prudential Insurance office building. Other big developments are a new science center and supermarket.
- New houses accounted for one-quarter of $192.2 million of work in New Brunswick. Other big projects include office renovations and new college dormitories.
- Super Storm Sandy severely affected Toms River, Ocean County. Since October 2012, no other municipality demolished more houses. The storm’s impact can be seen in other measures, too. Between January and August, the Toms River building department issued permits for $160 million of work and authorized 571 new dwellings. The number of new houses is second only to Jersey City.
- Weehawken has $144.3 million of work through August. New houses and residential rehab account for 78.1 percent of this total. The Township’s 505 authorized dwellings rank fifth for the year among municipalities.

Authorized Housing Units, Jan-Aug. 2001-14

Data on monthly and yearly building permit activit is available on the New Jersey Construction Reporter website at: http://www.nj.gov/dca/divisions/codes/reporter/building_permits.html

THE NEW JERSEY CONSTRUCTION REPORTER contains statistics on construction activity in New Jersey. Information in the report comes from construction officials who administer the State Uniform Construction Code (UCC) (N.J.A.C. 5:23-1 et seq.) in New Jersey's 566 municipalities.

Each month, construction officials send to the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs (DCA) reports on the permits and certificates they issue. Permits authorize the start of construction and cover four types of activity: (1) New construction permits authorize the start of a new structure. (2) Permits for additions refer to work that will add space (volume and square feet) to an existing building. (3) Alterations also involve existing structures, but the work authorized will not add space. Typically, construction officials issue permits for alterations when the work is subject to one or more of the UCC's major subcodes (building, electrical, plumbing, fire protection). (4) Demolition permits authorize the removal of a building or some other structure. The CONSTRUCTION REPORTER identifies only those demolitions that will result in the loss of housing.

In addition to permits, the CONSTRUCTION REPORTER has information on the certificates issued by construction officials. While permits authorize the start of construction, certificates are issued for work completed and ready for occupancy. Each month, the CONSTRUCTION REPORTER will report on the number of housing units and the amount of office and retail space authorized for construction, along with the number of housing units and the amount of office and retail space completed.

Data Comparability

The CONSTRUCTION REPORTER contains information on authorized housing units that is tabulated two different ways. The DCA tabulates Tables 1 through 3 and Tables 8 through 13 based on the use of buildings, defined in "groups" by New Jersey's UCC. Exhibit B on page 3 summarizes these groups.

Tables 4, 5, and 6 show authorized housing units as defined and tabulated by the United States Census Bureau. The New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development prepares these tables for publication in the CONSTRUCTION REPORTER. Exhibit C on page 4 describes the housing definitions used by the Census Bureau.

The DCA series and the Census Bureau series on authorized housing units differ two important ways. First, the DCA series includes housing units created as a result of permits issued to alter or make additions to existing structures. The Census Bureau counts only those housing units authorized from permits issued for new construction.

Second, the Census Bureau imputes data for localities that fail to submit monthly reports on time. An asterisk in the Census column of data appearing in the Municipal Summary Data table at the back of the CONSTRUCTION REPORTER indicates those towns with imputed data. The Census Bureau bases these imputations on historic trends. The DCA series shows information for only those towns that submitted monthly reports. If a municipality failed to submit a monthly report on time, "No report" appears in the appropriate columns in the Municipal Summary Data table.

Additional Terms

A number of other terms appear in the tables throughout the CONSTRUCTION REPORTER. Exhibit A on page 2 defines additional construction permit and certificate terms.

Exhibit A

Exhibit C

Residential Structures (U.S. Census Bureau Definitions)

Tables 4, 5, and 6 show authorized housing units based on the structure types defined below by the U.S. Census Bureau. The number of units shown in these tables refers to those authorized by building permits issued for new construction only.

Single-Family Houses

Include all detached one-family houses and all attached one-family houses separated by a wall that extends from ground to roof with no common heating system or inter-structural public utilities. Include prefabricated, sectionalized, panelized, and modular homes that are manufactured partially off site, but are transported and assembled at the construction site.

Two-Family Buildings

Include all buildings with two housing units that may be above one another or side by side. If built side by side, the structures (1) do not have a wall that extends from ground to roof; or (2) share a heating system; or (3) have inter-structural public utilities, such as water supply and sewage disposal.

Three- and Four-Family Buildings

Include all buildings with three or four housing units. If built side by side, the structures (1) do not have a wall that extends from ground to roof; or (2) share a heating system; or (3) have inter-structural public utilities, such as water supply and sewage disposal.

Five-or-More-Family Buildings

Include all buildings with five or more housing units. If built side by side, the structures (1) do not have a wall that extends from ground to roof; or (2) share a heating system; or (3) have inter-structural public utilities, such as water supply and sewage disposal.

Private Housing Units

Housing owned by a private company or individual during the period of construction. This includes all housing built by nonprofit organizations and "turnkey" housing; for example, housing that will be sold to a local public housing authority when completed.

NOTE:

Users of the monthly CONSTRUCTION REPORTER may notice that year-to-date figures in a particular issue may not be obtained by merely summing the monthly totals that appear in previous issues. This is because the construction data compiled by the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs are continuously updated. Monthly construction reports submitted too late to make the January issue of the CONSTRUCTION REPORTER, for example, are included in the year-to-date totals that appear in the February issue.
