Summary of Public Comments and Agency Responses

Comments were received from Robert Steel, Clerk, Cinnaminson Fire District #1; Christopher Weniger, Chief Fire Marshal, Hillsborough Township; John Sabel, Fire Marshal, Deputy OEM Coordinator, Fire Prevention Bureau, Borough of Bernardsville; William Gee, President, Ocean County Fire Prevention & Protection Association; and Paul Roman.

1. COMMENT: Mr. Steel writes on behalf of the Cinnaminson Fire District #1 to support the rulemaking, and to adopt it as proposed. He writes that the adoption of training standards for virtually every position within the fire service will ensure that fire personnel earning the specific certifications will all meet the same minimum standards. This is vitally important as the fire service throughout New Jersey and the nation is increasingly required to rely on mutual aid. In addition, the inclusion in the proposed certifications as being recognized by IFSAC and ProBoard will ensure that New Jersey’s fire personnel are recognized throughout the country as meeting these minimum standards. Mr. Steel states that employers are currently required to ensure that their employees are trained in their expected duties and responsibilities. The rulemaking will give the fire service and governing bodies the ability to meet existing training requirements through state certifications and training programs included in this rulemaking.

RESPONSE: The Department appreciates the commenter’s affirmative comments, and thanks the commenter for his support of the rulemaking. The establishment of the proposed training programs and certifications will enable the New Jersey Fire Service to obtain State, national, and international accreditation in the titles proposed, and will benefit the public by promoting a better trained and credentialed fire service.

2. COMMENT: Mr. Weniger and Mr. Sabel have submitted suggestions to modify the fire investigator credentialing criteria found in N.J.A.C. 5:73-18, Fire Investigator. Specifically, to increase from three years to five years, the time permitted to apply courses completed towards issuance of a fire investigator certification found at N.J.A.C. 5:73-18.2(a)4; and at N.J.A.C. 5:73-18.2(a)7, to accept the International Association of Arson Investigators (IAAI) Fire Investigator Technician (FIT) credential to meet the equivalency determination towards issuance of a fire investigator certification.

RESPONSE: The Department respectfully disagrees with the commenters’ remarks regarding extending the three-year period to five years. The three-year period corresponds to the current active certification timeline of three years for other existing certification titles established by the Commissioner. The Fire Investigator Technician (FIT) equivalency determination is a substantive change to the notice of proposal that would require additional public notice and comment and cannot be completed upon adoption. The Department will support the FIT equivalency determination in a future rulemaking, assuming such is approved by the Training and Education Advisory Council and the Fire Safety Commission.

3. COMMENT: Mr. Gee recommends that the Learning Disabilities, Examination Requirements, and National Credentialing statements located at the end of every subchapter should be placed in a lead administrative statement at the front of the chapter. The commenter asks how the Department will determine equivalency of IAAI and NAFI certifications towards issuance of a New Jersey Fire Investigator certification. The commenter further questions how continuing education units (CEUs) awarded by IAAI and NAFI will be accepted toward Fire Investigator certification renewal, and asks what will happen should a person not renew their IAAI and/or NAFI certifications. Additional statements supported the rulemaking to ensure that referenced standards do not become outdated. Any reference to NFPA, ASTM, UL, IAAI, NAFI etc., should just be references that are updated yearly or every two years.

RESPONSE: The Department appreciates the commenter’s comments. The decision to place the Learning Disabilities and National Credentialing statements within each subchapter is intended to place all relevant requirements relating to the specific title(s) in the credentialing subchapter to be transparent and easily communicated to the public. Placing those statements in an administrative section outside of the specific subchapter may be problematic for the public to determine, since the public is not generally accustomed to Department rulemaking statements in regulatory language. The Department believes these statements within each subchapter present a more transparent statement to the public and communicate the intent of the Department more effectively than relocating those statements outside the subchapter. Therefore, the Department will not change the format of the proposed rules regarding these statements. The acceptance of valid IAAI and NAFI Fire Investigator credentials to be eligible for issuance of a New Jersey Fire Investigator certification established by this rulemaking is only valid at the time of issuance of the certification. Equivalency determination will be evaluated based upon the “job performance requirements” in the relevant adopted standard. No requirement has been created in this rulemaking to require an individual to maintain an IAAI or NAFI accreditation, once a New Jersey Fire Investigator certification is issued. This linkage falls outside the scope of this rulemaking. The granting of CEUs issued by the IAAI and NAFI to be accepted by the Office of Training and Certification towards the renewal requirements of a Fire Inspector certification will follow the criteria set forth in the proposed amendments. The Department agrees with the commenter that the automatic adoption of a new NFPA standards edition, upon adoption by NFPA, will strengthen the New Jersey Fire Service accreditation system.

The ability to automatically adopt changes to standard editions, upon changes by the specific organization, will eliminate the need to constantly create administrative rules to reference changes to over 20 referenced standards, and other technical documents/publications adopted through this rulemaking.

4. COMMENT: Mr. Roman states that he congratulates the Department on its plan to update the Fire Service Training and Certification Standards, and supports this initiative. He further supports the effort to obtain national accreditation from ProBoard and IFSAC on the titles presented in the notice of proposal; supports the inclusion of credentialing for EMS personnel to obtain IMS Level 1 certification issued by the Office of Training and Certification; and the ability to automatically adopt any change in an NFPA standard edition, upon adoption by NFPA.

RESPONSE: The Department appreciates the commenter’s affirmative comments, and thanks the commenter for his support of the rulemaking. The rulemaking is presented to benefit the credentialing of the New Jersey Fire Service and to assist communities to train their first responders to national standards. The adoption of NFPA standards and automatically adopting any changes to NFPA standard editions will strengthen the resiliency of the State’s credentialing system for firefighters.
Summary of Agency-Initiated Changes:
The Department has identified changes that need to be made to the amendments upon adoption:
1. At N.J.A.C. 5:73-2.5(a)(2), due to a publication error, the phrase “and documented as specified in (a) below” was proposed for deletion. This language has been added back into the rule text upon adoption.
2. At N.J.A.C. 5:73-5.2(a), the cross-reference to the chapter appendix was mistakenly cited as “N.J.A.C. 73 Appendix,” rather than “N.J.A.C. 5:73 Appendix.” This error is corrected upon adoption.
3. Throughout the chapter, references to NFPA 472 and 1403, which were proposed to be updated to either the 2012 or 2013 edition, are changed to the 2018 edition, as that is the current edition of the two standards that should be followed. The standards was updated subsequent to the publication of the notice of proposal.
