FIRE SAFETY FACTS

CARBON MONOXIDE

THE INVISIBLE THREAT...

AND WHAT YOU CAN DO ABOUT IT!

SMOKE AND CARBON MONOXIDE ALARMS SAVE LIVES!

FACT: Carbon Monoxide is a toxic gas which can kill you even before you are aware it is in your home or apartment. At low levels it can mimic flu symptoms, including nausea and fatigue, headaches and dizziness, The effects are different based upon your general health, age and level of exposure.

FACT: Carbon Monoxide has many sources gas fired appliances, wood burning stoves, fireplaces and your garaged motor vehicle.

FACT: Though statistically less than persons killed by fires caused by smoking or cooking related fires, people do die, and hundreds are injured every year.

CARBON MONOXIDE POISONING

THE TWO INSTANCES OF CO POISONING AND WHAT TO DO

Who is at Risk?

Basically anyone who breathes is at risk from Carbon Monoxide poisoning. However there are those who are even more susceptible, to include the unborn, toddlers, children of all ages, seniors, and those with lung or heart ailments.

*What if my CO Alarm sounds?
(There are two circumstances...)*

THE FIRST ONE.. (NO ONE FEELS ILL)

Turn off the CO alarm.

Turn off all appliances or sources of heat.

Ventilate the area. Open all windows and doors.

Call a qualified service person to check out any heat source.

THE SECOND... (SOMEONE DOES)

Leave immediately!
Establish who is ill!
Dial 911 from outside!
DO NOT re-enter the building!

Protect yourself and Family
Purchase at least one UL approved audible and strobe CO alarm and install it near sleeping areas.

NEVER use a range, oven, or other-than-UL approved home heating appliance.

NEVER run your vehicle in your garage for longer than it takes to move it out.
