

Free Resources from the New Jersey Department of Children and Families

The department provides dozens of useful publications free of charge, upon request. The topics include parenting, infant/child safety, teen issues, bullying/sexual harassment prevention, grandparents, smoking/vaping, opioids/addictions, violence prevention, social media/internet safety, kids' activity books and more. Much of the literature is also available in Spanish. Use the channels located on the right side of the webpage at this link <https://www.nj.gov/dcf/news/publications/> to view the materials by topic.

Reasonable quantities may be ordered by downloading and submitting the department's "Publications Order Form" to this email address: dcf.publications@dcf.nj.gov

Also, on these pages (but for download only), are infographics within these channels: "Adverse Childhood Experiences", "Children's System of Care" (for mental health resources), "Race Equity" and "Social Media" (for materials in multiple languages).

Here are some samples for your program's "resource center".
