14	1/23/2013	3/13/2013	On the day of the investigation observation revealed that a named toddler's hands were swollen and severely cracked by what appeared to be eczema, but is not firmly documented in the child's file. Interviews with the director and staff reveal that the child's parent states that the child received medicine but the center is only provided with over the counter cream to apply to the child's hands. The state of this child's were so severe that IAIU was contacted by OOL inspectors later that afternoon. Director was instructed to contact IAIU to report concerns but she failed to do so in a timely manner. Ensure that retraining is secured from an outside agency on immediately reporting possible neglect. Submit documentation that this training has been scheduled and completed asap to OOL.	Delete
