ALLEGATIONS	FINDINGS	RESULTS
1. Inappropriate action by center management: The center management accepted a health certificate from their food service company and is aware that the food service company changed the date and signature on the certificate and falsified the certificate	1. Interviews with the sponsor and management staff denied being aware that their food service company may have provided a falsified health certificate. Further interviews and documentation indicated that the center has no reason to believe that the health certificate received from the food service company is not valid. Multiple attempts to contact the health inspector that issued the food company their health certificate to validate its authenticity were made however the inspector could not be reached. The center has no way of confirming the validity of the certificate and has no reason to believe that the certificate is not valid. As a result of interview and documentation this allegation could not be substantiated.	1. Unsubstantiated
2. Inadequate documentation: The center does not have a valid health certificate for the food service company that is providing the meals to the center.	2. Interviews with the sponsor and management staff and a review of documentation revealed that the center has a current and valid health certificate from the food service company that is providing meals to the center. As a result of interview and documentation this allegation could not be substantiated.	2. Unsubstantiated

OBSERVATION AT THE CENTER REVEALED THAT THE CENTER: Is free of imminent hazards/risk of harm: Yes      Has adequate supervision: Yes                  Meets staff/child ratio requirements: Yes      Is operating within licensed capacity: Yes	As a result of this inspection 0 violation(s) applicable to the allegations were cited and 0 additional violation(s) was cited.
