WHEN TO USE IT

Use the CP&P Form 14-179, Pre-adoptive Family Care Agreement between the New Jersey Division of Child Protection and Permanency and Preadoptive Parent(s), to:

- Clarify the child's pre-adoptive status;
- Identify the risks involved in a pre-adoptive placement; and
- Facilitate the process of advising the preadoptive parent(s) of the conditions of the pre-adoptive placement.

See CP&P-IV-C-1-700, Placement Prior to Legal Clearance.

HOW TO USE IT

- The assigned Worker prepares three copies of the form using the template in the computerized Forms Manual.
- During the pre-placement interview with the preadoptive parent(s), the assigned Worker and Resource Family Worker explain:
 - The child's unique legal status;
 - "Legal risks"; and
 - What needs to be done to obtain legal clearance for adoption.

- After the interview, when all parties agree to the plan, both Workers and the preadoptive parent(s) sign the three copies of the Agreement.
