

FREE VIRTUAL GRANT WRITING SEMINARS

JULY 21, 2022 & JULY 27, 2022
10:00am - 1:00pm 5:30pm - 8:30pm

Developing a grant application can be challenging!

To help community-based and grassroots organizations and individuals become more successful in competing for and securing funding for their youth justice-related programs, the Juvenile Justice Commission (JJC) is hosting two free Grant Writing 101 Seminars via Microsoft Teams. These seminars will present attendees with a comprehensive overview of the grant writing process and provide them with tools and training on how to develop compelling, successful grant proposals and applications for county, state, federal, and private foundation funding.

Seminar topics include:

- Finding funding opportunities
- Identifying needs
- Understanding the “Request for Proposal” process
- Developing goals and objectives
- Collaboration
- Developing a budget
- Measuring impact
- Identifying and using data

TO REGISTER FOR A GRANT WRITING SEMINAR, please signup at https://bit.ly/NJJJC_GRANT_WRITING_101

NJ Office of the Attorney General
Juvenile Justice Commission
Juvenile Justice & Delinquency Prevention Committee