

Whole-Community Resilience Planning: A Starting List of Organizations

This document includes some organizations that work with socially-vulnerable individuals and communities. This list is just a starting point. In addition to those organizations detailed below, religious institutions, local service organizations such as food pantries, and civic organizations with the project region are good resources to consider. It is important to consider populations who may not reside within the region, but rely on services or facilities within the project area.

National Organizations
