Old Business
Bulls Island
Vice Chairman Loos noted that Director Dooley and the park superintendent had gathered and shared background information on the history of Bulls Island with the commission and that the information should be shared with the Master Plan Advisory Committee. Sometime in the first quarter of 2017, he suggested the committee convene to discuss their ideas related to Bulls Island and the Master Plan. Director Dooley noted she would send a letter to the advisory committee regarding including them in the process.

New Business
Commissioner Lubitz requested that the format in which applicants submit materials to the commission for review be added to the January meeting agenda in order to discuss moving to a more electronic system from this point forward. The computer limitations were discussed but it was also noted that a policy could be developed and that the discussion, at a minimum, could include Word Documents and PDFs.
Vice Chairman Loos requested that the DAG or director research if there is enabling legislation related to Bulls Island. He noted obtaining information on issues such as purchase, bonding, and use.

Public Forum
Mrs. Barth noted that Montgomery Township had turned down a Verizon tower in the municipality. She will be requesting information from commission staff related to the project. Director Dooley briefly described the project, recent cell tower OPRA requests and historic handling of cell towers.

Mrs. Barth discussed the proposed replication swing bridge to be constructed in West Amwell Township from mitigation funds related to the I-95 Scudder Falls project. She discussed concerns with the time required to open the bridge under the present design. Mrs. Barth described bridges in Canada which open within one or two minutes, and showed a video which illustrated swing bridges opening both by hand and by motor.

Commissioner Lubitz made a second motion that in any discussion of settling the lawsuit, the commission requires that its legal fees be paid by the litigant, in this case the Princeton Battlefield Society.

The motion was not seconded.

Vice Chairman Loos discussed whether the two motions should be incorporated into one motion.

Commissioner Lubitz asked if the commission can hear the institute’s new application while still being sued over the old application. DAG Kim stated that the stay would apply to the pending appeal, which is what was already approved. DAG Kim stated that the Institute for Advanced Study could come before the commission with a new application.

Director Fleming seconded the motion. Vice Chairman Loos asked if there was any discussion amongst the commissioners.

Vice Chairman Loos called for a vote. The motion was approved unanimously.

Director Fleming noted that, with reference to the swing bridge discussed previously in the meeting, she received information that redesign would cost approximately $75,000, and a redesign could take a year. There was discussion about who would be operating the swing bridge and its being opened during floods and by park staff for educational purposes. There was discussion about the bridge, its design, its redesign, permitting, and materials. It was noted that the commission had already approved the project.
