

NJDEP Compliance & Enforcement Posts New Training Website

Who is affected by this initiative?

Businesses, industry, government agencies, consultants and other individuals who want to better understand and comply with or exceed New Jersey's environmental regulations.

Why has Compliance & Enforcement created a new training web site?

Compliance assistance training is part of our continuing commitment to quality customer service. We invite you to take advantage of the many training opportunities offered to make environmental compliance easier. Our training is geared to help prevent violations and improve overall compliance leading to greater protection of human health and the environment.

What type of information is available on the training webpages?

By visiting <http://www.nj.gov/dep/enforcement/cetraining.html> you will find useful information such as: current training opportunities, outreach materials, guidance documents, copies of past training presentations, links to additional training web sites, opportunities to submit questions or request training, and much more.

Who should I contact with questions or comments?

We welcome your comments on how to make this site better. Please contact Terri Slack, Training & Staff Development Coordinator at (609) 984-661 or terri.slack@dep.state.nj.us.

For more information about our Compliance Advisory Program or to comment on this advisory:

NJDEP Compliance Advisories are an electronic notification service of the NJDEP Compliance & Enforcement Program. They provide information to subscribers notifying them of upcoming important developments involving NJDEP's Compliance & Enforcement Program and their customers including changes in regulations, training opportunities, compliance assistance information and more. We generally issue 15-20 compliance advisories annually.
