Certifying Officer(s)

A Certifying Officer of a corporation is a president, secretary, treasurer and if desired chairman of the board, one or more vice-presidents, and such other officers as may be prescribed by the by-laws. Any Officer certifying the firm must hold a current NJ UST License. Officers must hold the same certifications as the firm, either individually or combined.

I certify, under penalty of law that the information provided in this document is true, accurate and complete; and that all certifications, policies and mechanisms are currently in effect. I am aware that there are significant civil and criminal penalties for submitting false, inaccurate or incomplete information, including fines and/or imprisonment.
