

International Code Council

Effective immediately, all UST Exams will only be administered through the International Code Council (ICC). Applicants may register and pay for an ICC UST category exam at www.iccsafe.org. Upon accessing the ICC website, select "Education & Certification" and then choose "Exam Catalog." Here applicants can search for license category exam(s) of their choice.

- Scroll down to "Catalog Search"
- Type: Select "UST/AST" from the dropdown menu
- Category/Trade: Select "National UST/AST" from the dropdown menu (do NOT select STATE)
- Click "Search"
- Select the license category exam of your choice and register

The ICC individual exam fee of $80.00 is due at the time of registration. Applicants will be given the opportunity to take the closed book, computer-based exam on a date and time of their preference. For additional information about ICC and/or the exam registration process, please contact ICC at 888-ICC-SAFE (888-422-7233) and press 0 or you may email your questions to ICC at carecenter@iccsafe.org.

In addition, please be reminded that final UST licensing is based upon submission and DEP approval of a complete UST exam application including required experience along with the $50 review fee for each UST category AND proof of the applicable ICC passing exam score(s).
