Description: Brick building with side-gabled roof, one-story wings and a rear addition/section. The brickwork is set in Flemish bond. The entrance door is set in an elaborate cast stone round arch surround. The entrance bay projects as a gabled section with a terra cotta tile roof. Small arched windows are found on the building - however, several have been bricked over. There is a brick cupola on the roof. The building was constructed in 1926 and was designed by Harry E. Warren.
