

NATURAL A, B, C's

While you are outside today gather some fallen leaves, twigs, rocks and other natural materials you may find. See if you can spell your name by shaping the letters with the items you collect. Try to find all the letters of the alphabet out in nature. When you find something, share your observations with a family member and draw or write about it below

