

Core Training

Saturday, March 28, 2020

at the Holly House at Rutgers Gardens
130 Log Cabin Road, North Brunswick N.J. 08816
(directions at the link below)

<http://www.cpe.rutgers.edu/directions/Holly-House.pdf>

Registration fee: $50.00

Registrations due by March 23, 2020

AGENDA

- 8:30-9:00 REGISTRATION AND BREAKFAST
- 9:00-9:45 NEW JERSEY URBAN AND COMMUNITY FORESTRY PROGRAM:
What is it and how does it work?
- 9:45-10:45 TREES 101: Structure, Function, Identification, Jargon
- 10:45-11:00 BREAK
- 11:00-12:00 LEGAL ISSUES IN COMMUNITY FORESTRY: Shade Tree Commissions & The Law
- 12:00-12:45 LUNCH
- 12:45-1:45 TREE RISK MANAGEMENT: Why Trees Fail, Defects, Targets, Assessment
- 1:45-2:45 ELEMENTS OF A SUCCESSFUL COMMUNITY FORESTRY PROGRAM:
Tree Planting and Maintenance from Planning to Practice
- 2:45-3:00 BREAK
- 3:00-4:00 ELEMENTS OF A SUCCESSFUL COMMUNITY FORESTRY PROGRAM:
Community Forestry Management Plans
- 4:00-4:30 CLOSING REMARKS AND PAPERWORK

Core Training Registration Information

Name _____

Municipality, County Represented _____

Phone _____

E-Mail _____

Make checks, money orders, or purchase orders payable to:
Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey

Send registration information with payment to:

Rutgers Urban Forestry Program
c/o Dr. Jason Grabosky
14 College Farm Road
New Brunswick, N.J. 08901

Contact: Pam Zipse, Outreach Coordinator, Rutgers Urban Forestry Program, pam.zipse@rutgers.edu

No refunds are provided to those who miss the training session.
To receive Core Training credit participants must attend all sessions.
Core Training does not provide credit for NJUCF CEUs.

Core training provided through a USDA Forest Service grant in partnership with

USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender