

The Grover Cleveland Birthplace State Historic Site is the only house museum in the country dedicated to this former President of the United States. In the house, you can see old family photos and Cleveland's baby cradle.