

The Indian King Tavern has been the site for many important historical events, including the adoption of the Great Seal of New Jersey, which occurred on May 19, 1777.