

Swartswood State Park has a diverse habitat that supports a variety of wildlife. Occasionally, you will see our country's most famous bird, the Bald Eagle, soaring high above this State Park.