

RADON TESTING CONFIDENTIALITY WAIVER

Tested Address:

The results of the radon testing performed at the address above will be provided to the owner of the building, if an individual, or to the person identified in N.J.A.C. 7:28-27.3(c), if the owner is not an individual. In addition, the results may be provided to the owner's legal representative, including an attorney or real estate agent, acting in accordance with a written agreement with the owner. In the case of a prospective sale, the buyer who contracts for the testing of the building at the above address will also receive the test results. The certified individual who conducts this test will also receive the test results.

In order for test results to be provided to any other individual(s), the owner of the building, if an individual, or to the person identified in N.J.A.C. 7:28-27.3(c), if the owner is not an individual, or their legal representative may waive the right of confidentiality and authorize the certified radon measurement business responsible for this test to provide the results to ANY individual or entity. A signature below indicates the right of confidentiality is waived.
