You must indicate whether the issues set forth on the following pages are addressed either in your provider agreement and/or an accompanying provider manual. There are a few issues that may not apply to the specific type of provider agreement you are filing, but you must indicate this. If the information is contained in the provider manual rather than in the contract, or information in the provider manual substantively supplements information in the provider agreement, then the provider manual must be submitted for review with the provider agreement. Indicate where the provision addressing each issue is located. There must be a response for each issue. A separate checklist and certification must be submitted for each provider agreement filed.

The completed checklist must include the certification below, signed by an officer of the carrier, certifying to the accuracy of the information contained in the checklist. The completed checklist, the provider agreement, and the provider manual (as appropriate) must be submitted together to:
