DEPARTMENT OF BANKING AND INSURANCE

IN THE MATTER OF THE TRANSFER ) OF DOMICILE AND WITHDRAWAL OF ) CONSOLIDATED SPECIALTY INSURANCE ) ORDER
COMPANY F/K/A 21ST CENTURY AUTO )
INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW JERSEY )

This matter having been opened by the Commissioner of the New Jersey Department of Banking and Insurance (“Commissioner”) pursuant to N.J.S.A. 17:1–15 and 17:17–20.b, and all powers expressed or implied therein, and upon the application of Consolidated Specialty Insurance Company (“CSIC”) for approval to transfer its domicile from the State of New Jersey to the State of Arizona in connection with its withdrawal from transacting business in this State; and

IT APPEARING that CSIC, formerly known as 21st Century Auto Insurance Company of New Jersey, is a domestic stock insurer domiciled in the State of New Jersey; and

IT FURTHER APPEARING that pursuant to N.J.S.A. 17:17–20.b, a domestic insurer may, upon the written approval of the Commissioner, transfer its domicile to any state in which it is admitted to transact the business of insurance; and

IT FURTHER APPEARING that CSIC filed an application to transfer its domicile to the State of Arizona, a jurisdiction where CSIC is admitted to transact the business of insurance; and

IT FURTHER APPEARING that CSIC will not seek to be admitted in this State after its transfer of domicile to the State of Arizona; and

IT FURTHER APPEARING that the State of Arizona Department of Insurance and Financial Institutions has issued CSIC a no objection letter regarding the proposed transfer of domicile; and

IT FURTHER APPEARING that CSIC has no active insurance policies in this State; and

IT FURTHER APPEARING that the run-off any remaining claims of CSIC will be handled by another licensed affiliate(s) of CSIC; and

IT FURTHER APPEARING that there are no facts or circumstances that provide any legal authority for the Commissioner to disapprove CSIC's request to transfer its domicile to the State of Arizona.

THEREFORE, IT IS on this 18th day of December 2024

ORDERED that the application of CSIC to transfer its domicile to the State of Arizona is hereby approved, subject to the following conditions:

1. The transfer of domicile shall not be construed to alter either the existing respective rights, franchises and interests, or the duties, obligations and liabilities of CSIC, except as otherwise provided by law. CSIC shall continue to be subject to all the liabilities, claims and demands against it that were in existence prior to the transfer of domicile. Any action or proceeding pending at the time of the consummation of the process by which the domicile is transferred in which CSIC is a party shall not abate or discontinue by reason of the transfer of domicile; but shall be prosecuted to a final resolution in the same manner as if the transfer of domicile had not taken place; and

2. At the effective time of the transfer, CSIC will surrender its New Jersey Certificate of Authority and cease to be a New Jersey admitted insurer.
