

New Jersey Department of Education
2020-2022 World Languages Model Program Application
Guidance Document

Please use this guidance document to help you prepare for your district’s application submission to the New Jersey Department of Education (NJDOE) for World Languages Model Program recognition. Review the entire document and prepare responses and gather support materials (documentation) before beginning the online application. (Once the online application has been started, it cannot be saved for completion at a later time.) One administrator in the district should be designated to complete/submit the online application.

Deadline to complete online application and submit documentation: August 12, 2019.

There are four sections to the online application:

- Section I- Contact Information
- Section II- Program Information and Instructional Time / Frequency
- Section III-
 - A. Learning Environment
 - B. Assessment
 - C. Professional Growth
 - D. Program
- Section IV- Additional Information (Optional)

Documentation for Sections I through IV

Sections I and II: Contact Information and Program Information and Instructional Time / Frequency

These sections are completed entirely through the online application. There is no additional documentation required.

Section III - Part A: Learning Environment

For this section, please provide a collection of 3 to 5 lesson plans for the program configuration that you are asking to be considered for model program designation that reflect:

- multiple grade levels (at least 3 per language);
- multiple proficiency levels (at least 3 per language); and
- all indicators (1 to 10) of the section.

A lesson plan may span more than one day. All lesson plans and documentation must be submitted electronically as described in Online Application Submission Directions section (see below).

Section III- Parts B through D: Assessment, Professional Growth, and Program

For this section, some criteria request support materials and / or descriptions.

Support materials must be submitted electronically as described in the Online Application Submission Directions section (see below) as a separate email.

Descriptions, when requested, must be submitted via the online application according to character limits.

Section IV – Additional Information

Please enter this information via the online application and limit your response to a maximum of 10,000 characters.

Online Application Submission Directions:

1. Complete the application using Survey Monkey.
2. Provide all documents / requested information either through a link to an online folder (preferred) or attached to a single email to worldlang@doe.nj.gov no later than August 5, 2019.
3. Identify your district name in subject line of the email.

Any questions about the application process should be sent to: worldlang@doe.nj.gov prior to August 12, 2019 to allow time for a response.

Note: Pages 3 to 10 of this document are provided to assist you in preparing the responses and gathering the support materials (documentation) before you begin the online application.

7. Describe how your program allows for multiple entry points.

Section III – Learning Environment, Assessment, Professional Growth, Program

The following rating scale should be used for self-assessing your program. When completing each section, please keep in mind the response selected should reflect what is happening at all grade and proficiency levels on a regular basis.

Not Applicable	Not Evident	Emerging	Partially Evident	Clearly Evident
Criteria is not applicable to this program	Evidence of criteria is apparent in a very limited capacity	Evidence of criteria is apparent in some grade or proficiency levels	Program has begun addressing criteria but outcomes are not yet fully evident at all grade or proficiency levels	Program has addressed criteria and outcomes are evident at all grade and proficiency levels

A. Learning Environment

- Criteria: At all grade and proficiency levels, program strives to implement all criteria on a regular basis.
- Required Support Materials: The required support materials for each of the criteria listed are 3 to 5 lesson plans (per language) from the program that you would like to be considered. The collection of lesson plans for each language must include multiple grade and proficiency levels and address all criteria (1 to 10) of this section.

Criteria	Rating
1. Target language is used as the vehicle and content of instruction at least 90% of the time. ¹	Choose an item.
2. Lessons and tasks are designed with functional goals and objectives that clearly specify the language and activities needed to support and meet the communicative objective. ¹	Choose an item.
3. A variety of instructional strategies are implemented to make language comprehensible (e.g., gestures, visuals, authentic materials, hands-on experiences).	Choose an item.
4. Technology is leveraged (by teachers and students) for authentic purposes: communicating in target language, interacting with native speakers, accessing authentic materials and/or engaging in a real-world instructional task.	Choose an item.
5. Students are engaged in interpersonal communicative tasks with partners, in small groups, and/or as part of whole class instruction. ¹	Choose an item.
6. Learning experiences are designed to engage students in different levels of thinking (e.g., remembering, understanding, applying, analyzing, evaluating, creating).	Choose an item.
7. Scaffolding and follow-up tasks that promote interpretation for language learning are provided through interactive reading and listening comprehension tasks using authentic cultural texts of various kinds. ¹	Choose an item.
8. Tasks are adapted to meet the needs and interests of the students enabling them to engage in relevant, content-rich experiences that increase in complexity across grade and proficiency levels.	Choose an item.
9. Opportunities are provided for students to explore their own culture and make comparisons with other cultures in a meaningful way. Interactions with global communities provide opportunities for students to know, understand, and appreciate people from other cultures along with the capacity to acknowledge other points of view.	Choose an item.
10. Grammar is taught as concept and used in context. Students focus on meaning before form. ¹	Choose an item.

¹ These are Core Practices. For more information about the Core Practices, please see ACTFL's video.

B. Assessment

Notes for Table Below:

- Criteria: At all grade and proficiency levels, program strives to implement all criteria on a regular basis.
- Required Support Materials:
 - For criteria 4 and 8, describe via online application (5,000-character limit).
 - For criteria 5 through 7, provide evidence via email (online link to folder or attachment).

Criteria	Rating
1. Students regularly identify and monitor their own goals for language proficiency and cultural competence using “Can Do” statements.	Choose an item.
2. Multiple methods are used to check for understanding throughout a lesson.	Choose an item.
3. A variety of feedback strategies (e.g., speech, written) are used to assist students in meeting performance objectives. Evidence from student performance is incorporated in feedback. ¹	Choose an item.
4. Data (evidence of student performance) from formative and summative assessments are used to modify subsequent learning experiences to reach targeted performance objectives.	Choose an item.
5. Performance-based assessments play a major role in the world languages program and involve tasks that are real-life, meaningful, and worthwhile.	Choose an item.
6. Rubrics describing clear expectations for student performance based on proficiency levels and grade level benchmarks are an integral part of the world languages program. Rubrics are shared with students in advance.	Choose an item.
7. Assessments are designed to reflect the expectations of the New Jersey Student Learning Standards. They allow students to demonstrate what they can do with what they know across the three modes of communication based on proficiency level and grade level benchmarks.	Choose an item.
8. A process is established for students and teachers to document and review student growth over time (e.g., proficiency-based assessments, “Can Do” statements with student work examples, portfolios).	Choose an item.
9. Grading systems weigh performance more heavily than language knowledge.	Choose an item.

C. Professional Growth

- Criteria: At all grade and proficiency levels, program strives to implement all criteria on a regular basis.
- Required Support Materials:
 - For criteria 1, 3, and 5, describe via online application (5,000-character limit).
 - For criteria 2, provide evidence via email (online link to folder or attachment).

Criteria	Rating
1. A process is in place in which educators self-assess their professional growth and identify areas in need of improvement (e.g. rubrics, Teacher Effectiveness for Language Learning –TELL)	Choose an item.
2. A plan is developed (and implemented) for district-wide professional development that includes a variety of experiences based on the input and experiences of its educators in combination with the needs and interests of its students.	Choose an item.
3. Educators are provided with opportunities to engage in regular collegial discussions and interactions at the school, district, and global level (e.g., EdCamps, conferences, peer observations, online communities, professional organizations, professional learning communities).	Choose an item.
4. Educators are reflective practitioners who regularly engage in professional learning experiences based on their individual needs and interests.	Choose an item.
5. The district supports educators in their efforts to develop skills beyond their individual classroom and assume leadership roles in the school community (e.g., coach, mentor), professional organization, or other educational venues.	Choose an item.

D. Program

- Criteria: At all grade and proficiency levels, program strives to implement all criteria on a regular basis.
- Required Support Materials:
 - For criteria 1, 10, 11, and 13, describe via online application (5,000-character limit).
 - For criteria 4, 6, 8, and 9, provide evidence via email (online link to folder or attachment).

Criteria	Rating
1. Belief that second language acquisition is essential in preparing students for the global economy and for becoming contributing members of local, national, and international communities. The belief is institutionalized in the district at all levels (e.g., administrators, educators, students, parents, community members).	Choose an item.
2. Belief that all students are language learners. Effective language learning experiences are carefully orchestrated by teachers through building relationships with students giving consideration to their unique needs and interests and collaborating with them to create an environment where they are safe and can flourish as language learners.	Choose an item.
3. Core practices of language learning are evident in all aspects of the world language program (e.g., curriculum design, learning experiences, resource selection and use, assessment design, course offerings, extracurricular experiences, professional learning experiences).	Choose an item.
4. Standards-based curricula reflective of current research and best practices are used in all grade and proficiency levels. Vertical and horizontal articulation of curricula is evident by the use of instructional tasks which increase in complexity in all three modes of communication according to proficiency level and grade level performance benchmarks. Curricula reflect the 2014 New Jersey Student Learning Standards for World Languages .	Choose an item.

Criteria	Rating
5. The district educational community (e.g., administrators, educators, students, parents, community members) recognize the integral role the world languages program plays in preparing students to become productive members of a global society.	Choose an item.
6. Multiple methods are used to expand perspectives and attitudes about language learning opportunities with stakeholders including highlighting the accomplishments of students (e.g., administrators, educators, students, parents, community members).	Choose an item.
7. Community stakeholders (e.g., native speakers, organizations, agencies, businesses) are leveraged to provide support to the world languages program (e.g., serving as authentic audiences, sharing experiences and expertise, aiding students in real-world performance tasks).	Choose an item.
8. Opportunities for students to engage in extracurricular activities related to world languages are provided (e.g., clubs, field trips, travel, exchange programs).	Choose an item.
9. Students have opportunities to be recognized for their language proficiency (e.g., Seal of Biliteracy, AP courses, World Language Honor Society).	Choose an item.
10. Elementary program has a mechanism for reporting student progress.	Choose an item.
11. A process is established for stakeholders (e.g., administrators, teachers, students) to review the world languages program across all proficiency and grade levels for the purpose of identifying strengths and areas for program improvement.	Choose an item.
12. A strong sense of community exists among educators at all grade and proficiency levels. The culture is supportive, collaborative, and values continual professional growth in support of student learning.	Choose an item.

Criteria	Rating
13. The district recognizes its important role of supporting the field of teaching by providing pre-service teachers with meaningful field and clinical experiences through interactions with effective teachers. In addition, it has established a comprehensive induction program that supports novice teachers for multiple years in gaining the skills, knowledge, and dispositions to become effective world language teachers.	Choose an item.
