NJDOE Offers Financial Education Boot Camps

The New Jersey Department of Education (NJDOE) is sponsoring two Financial Education Boot Camp programs geared toward educators who teach personal finance to youth or adults. The free full-day workshops – titled “Financial Current Events: Making the Real World ‘Real’ to Students” – will include brief subject matter updates about current personal finance topics and methods to teach personal finance via creative lesson plans, online resources and technology tools. Participants will also have time to network and share ideas in small groups.

The Financial Education Boot Camps will be held at the following times and locations:

Southern New Jersey:

Wednesday, August 1, 2018

Atlantic County Institute of Technology

5080 Atlantic Avenue, Mays Landing, NJ

Northern New Jersey:

Thursday, August 2, 2018

Raritan Valley Community College, Conference Center

118 Lamington Road, Branchburg, NJ
