

Administrator’s Statement of Assurance
For Educator’s Participation on NJDOE Preschool Teaching and Learning Standards Review Committee

July 2020

The New Jersey Department of Education Division of Early Childhood Education is seeking qualified educators to serve on the Preschool Teaching and Learning Standards Review Committee. Individuals must have teaching or leading experience in preschool programs. Educators and stakeholders should have a deep understanding of standards-based instruction, be qualified to review the current version of the New Jersey Preschool Teaching and Learning Standards and be prepared to make recommendations regarding possible revisions.

The purpose of this Statement of Assurance is for principals or superintendents to indicate their support of the educator(s) below and acknowledge that the educator(s) will be allowed to fully participate in all required meetings.

A principal or superintendent who would like to recommend more than one educator should complete a separate Statement of Assurance for each educator. Please email this completed and signed form to doeearlychild@doe.nj.gov by August 7, 2020 (digital signatures are acceptable).
