2022-2023 Reimbursement for Providing Additional or Compensatory Special Education and Related Services to Students with Disabilities Beyond Age 21 (ACSERS)

The application for seeking reimbursement for providing Additional or Compensatory Special Education and Related Services (ACSERS) for students with disabilities who were 21 as of July 1, 2022 will be available on or about December 7, 2022 on the New Jersey Department of Education's (NJDOE) Homeroom webpage.

When completing the application, school districts will, for each student with disabilities receiving special education and related services under this program, estimate the total costs to be incurred in the 2022-2023 school year for providing these services. Applications will be accepted through January 16, 2023, and then the NJDOE will reimburse 50 percent of the approved costs in January 2023.

Districts must submit final applications for 2022-2023 costs in June 2023. Final applications will include final costs for 2022-2023 and reflect adjustments to estimated costs submitted in January as needed. The NJDOE will reimburse any remaining balance before the end of July 2023. For additional information, please refer to the December 2021 and April 2022 broadcasts.
