Announcing the Continuation of the ARP ESSER Roundtable Series

The New Jersey Department of Education (NJDOE) is pleased to announce the continuation of its Elementary and Secondary School Emergency Relief (ESSER) roundtable discussions. The Division of Educational Services will host the next roundtable on January 26, 2022. The session will focus on braiding and blending Federal funds, including ESSER funds, to support learning acceleration, social-emotional learning, and mental health. The roundtable will be held virtually through Microsoft TEAMS. Registration is free and interested participants should register as soon as possible. Please visit the NJDOE Calendar of Events to register online.
