Virtual Training Sessions and Certification Updates for District Certification Staff

The Office of Recruitment, Preparation and Certification will be conducting regional training sessions for local education agencies (LEA)s and county certification staff this summer. The sessions will include training on the new educator certification system, NJEdCert, new Limited Certificate of Eligibility (CE) and Certification of Eligibility with Advance Standing (CEAS) certifications and additional information regarding certification policies and procedures for the upcoming 2022-2023 school year. Human resource directors and certification staff are encouraged to attend one of three sessions. Please note, registration is not required.
