School Safety Specialist Training to Be Held in August

The New Jersey Department of Education's four-day School Safety Specialist (SSS) certification training will be held Monday, August 8 through Thursday, August 11, 2022, at the Burlington Township High School Performing Arts Center, 610 Fountain Ave., Burlington, New Jersey.

To attend the training and receive the School Safety Specialist certification, candidates must:

- Be a school administrator or a school employee with expertise in school safety and security;
- Be an employee of a Local Education Agency (LEA) designated by the Chief School Administrator;
- Complete the Federal Emergency Management Agency's (FEMA) Introduction to the Incident Command System, IS-100.C, online course; and
- Complete all four days of training sessions.

Register online for the August training. There is no cost for this training.

Prior to attending the training program, SSS designees should complete the FEMA online course, IS-100.C Introduction to the Incident Command System, ICS 100. This online prerequisite for the SSS training program takes approximately two hours to complete. Before taking the online FEMA course, please review their Technical System Requirements at the bottom of the webpage. Issues or concerns with this online course should be directed to FEMA Independent Study Inquiries. Upon completion of IS-100.C, email a copy of your FEMA Certificate of Achievement to sssa@doe.nj.gov.

Per N.J.S.A. 18A:17-43.3, responsibilities of the SSS include supervising and providing oversight for all school safety and security personnel; ensuring safety and security policies and procedures comply with state laws and regulations; and, providing the necessary training and resources to LEAs in matters relating to school safety and security. The SSS will also serve as the LEA's liaison with local law enforcement, as well as national, state and community agencies and organizations, in matters of school safety and security.

Questions regarding the SSS training program or requirements can be directed to the Office of School Preparedness and Emergency Planning at school.security@doe.nj.gov or (609) 376-3574.
