 Spring Professional Learning Opportunities

The Office of Special Education Learning Resource Center Network, in partnership with William Paterson University, is excited to offer a series of professional learning opportunities for educators and families of students with disabilities in preschool through grade 12. These sessions will provide valuable tools to support all learners and highlight the resources available through the Learning Resource Center Network.

There is no registration fee and space is limited. Interested participants are encouraged to visit the New Jersey Department of Education (NJDOE) event registration webpage for additional information and to register. A link to attend each session will be emailed to registered participants prior to each scheduled session. Please see the schedule of all sessions below and additional information on this flyer.
