NJDOE Homeroom URL Changing

At the direction of New Jersey Office of Homeland Security and Preparedness, the URLs for the New Jersey Department of Education (NJDOE) Homeroom and all applications on NJ Homeroom will be changing.

Key steps/actions

The URLs for NJDOE Homeroom and all Homeroom applications will be changing. Currently, the URL ends with “state.nj.us” and will now end with “doe.nj.gov”. Therefore, NJDOE Homeroom will change:

From: <https://homeroom.doe.state.nj>

To: <https://homeroom.doe.nj.gov>

The URLs for individual Homeroom applications are changing as follows:

If the URL begins with:	It will change to:
https://homeroom4.doe.state.nj.us/	https://homeroom.doe.nj.gov/
https://homeroom5.doe.state.nj.us/	https://homeroom5.doe.nj.gov/
https://homeroom6.doe.state.nj.us/	https://homeroom6.doe.nj.gov/

Additional Information

Please note the following:

- Any links that have been saved need to be updated. This includes both the link to NJDOE Homeroom and any applications which are on NJDOE Homeroom.

Example, you regularly login to the ASSA System on NJDOE Homeroom and have it stored as a favorite. Once the URL has been changed, this saved link will no longer work. You can change the URL now to prevent any interruption in being able to access the application.
- Any passwords that you have saved will not remain saved with the new link. You may wish to make a note of frequently used logins to NJDOE Homeroom applications to login for the first time after using the new URL.

Example, you regularly login to the CDS System on NJDOE Homeroom and the login automatically fills itself in. Once the URL is changed, the login won’t automatically pre-populate. You may wish to make a note of your logins before changing the URL so that you can enter them once the URL changes to make the transition easier.
